

Museum Forum for Teachers: Modern and Contemporary Art

Monday, July 13 - Friday, July 17, 2015

10 am - 4 pm, daily

An immersive week-long summer program for educators presented by: The Warehouse, Nasher Sculpture Center, Dallas Museum of Art, Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth, and Kimbell Art Museum.

Participating middle and high school teachers are invited to:

- Deepen their understanding of contemporary and modern art and architecture at renowned arts institutions in Dallas and Fort Worth
- Develop strategies to teach, interpret, and use works of art in the classroom and in museum galleries
- Connect with collections, resources, and staff at each museum
- Exchange ideas with other classroom teachers

Tuition:

Museum Forum for Teachers tuition is $250. The cost includes all instruction, materials, and lunch each day. Early Application deadline is April 3, 2015 (discounted rate $225). Regular Application deadline is May 29, 2015 ($250). Program sessions are held at each of the participating institutions and CPE Credit is available for participation.
